

Training on Monitoring and Evaluation for Evidence Based Decision Making

A six days training program on Monitoring and Evaluation for Evidence Based Decision Making was organized by Krishi Gobeshona Foundation (KGF) and Bangladesh Evaluation Society (BES) during 26 to 31 January 2018 at BARC Complex, Farmgate, Dhaka. The training course updated the participants on role of monitoring and evaluation in program management and to assist them in evidence based decision making. Mr. Mofizul Islam, Secretary, Implementation Monitoring and Evaluation Division (IMED), Planning Commission, Government of Bangladesh was present in the inaugural session on 26 January 2018 as the Chief Guest and opened the training course. Professor Dr. Nazmul Ahsan Kalimullah, BTFO, Vice Chancellor, Begum Rokeya University, Rangpur and Vice President of BES was present as Guest of Honour while Mr. Md. Khalilur Rahman, Vice Present of BES and Director-General, Prime Minister's Office, Government of Bangladesh was present as the Special Guest. Dr. Wais Kabir, Executive Director, KGF and former Executive Chairman, BARC presided over the inaugural session of the training. The fifteen (15) participants from KGF attended the training course.

At the end of this course, participants were evaluated and found that the training course helped them to upgrade the concepts in Program Monitoring and Evaluation, Importance of Evidence Based Decision Making, Conducting Program Evaluation, Upgrade research design, develop a quality research work, improve training method, etc.

The concluding session of the training course was arranged at the Bangabandhu International Conference Centre, Dhaka on 31 January, 2018. Mr. Md. Mofizul Islam, Secretary, IMED, Ministry of Planning was present in the concluding session. Certificates have been distributed among the training participants. All concerned personnel of the course and others personalities were present in the concluding session Ceremony. Dr. Wais Kabir, Executive Director, KGF and Former Executive Chairman, BARC chaired the concluding session and program was ended followed by dinner.

Training Opening Ceremony

Training Closing Ceremony

