

Training on Intellectual Property Rights and Technology Commercialization in Agriculture

A Training Program on “Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Technology Commercialization in Agriculture” has been scheduled to be held at BRAC-CDM, Savar, Dhaka during 24 – 29 June, 2018. The Training Program is being organized by Krishi Gobeshona Foundation (KGF). The Program is divided into two Batch-1st Batch to be started on June 24 and continue to 26 June, 2018 and 2nd batch for 27 – 29 June, 2018

Dr R. Kalpana Sastry, Professor, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Hyderabad and Dr K. Srinivas Principal Scientist, ICAR-NAARM, & CEO, A-Idea, ICAR-NAARM TBI, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad, from India will attend in the program as the foreign Resource Speakers.

Mr Mohammad Sanowar Hossain, Registrar (Addl. Secretary), Department of Patents, Designs and Trademarks (DPDT), Ministry of Industries and Dr. Md. Shahidur Rashid Bhuiyan, Professor, Departments of Genetics and Plant Breeding, Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University from Bangladesh to be performed as the National Resource Speakers in this training

The Trainers will lecture on the following issues in the each Batch:

- Overview of Intellectual Property Rights Ecosystem in NARS
- Plant Variety Protection
- Technology Incubation and Entrepreneurship-Case studies
- IPR Laws in Bangladesh
- Technology Commercialization and & Licensing Deals
- Incubator Operational Canvas
- IP Valuation
- Deal making with licensees and investors
- Practical's for IP Identification and valuation
- IP Informatics & Hands on exercises in Informatics

The around fifty (50) participants from NARS Institutions, Universities and Private Sectors in Bangladesh will participate in the training.